By adjusting the settings you can decide how long to record a video clip, how often to record, and at what speed.SEOUL, South Korea — The cease-fire announced by the leaders of the United States and North Korea at the Singapore summit on Wednesday for the current crisis in the Korean Peninsula is as close to lasting as any such truce has been. In the end, there will have to be a Democratic People's Republic of Korea (D.P.R.K.) that can even more effectively guard against an American invasion than it has done so far and undertake mutual economic investments with the world and at home, though the last is a matter of time and patience. From today's perspective it is important to understand that the summit was designed from the start to put the North Koreans in a position where they would feel compelled to give a better deal to the United States in exchange for retaining the support of Russia, China and other powers. In this respect, the Trump-Kim meeting was a ruse that removed the actual risk of American invasion. In fact, the United States gave the North Koreans a better deal than they would get if they kept up their current stance. The nuclear
