In it, the government reiterates its policy intentions in terms of the economic and fiscal situation for the coming year. Citation: 1. The Minister of Finance in the presence of the Economic and Fiscal Committee (EFC) of the House of Representatives and the Ministers of the Treasury, Public Service and Economic Affairs chaired by the Minister for Finance, gave the following statement: "This year, the government is fulfilling its commitments to boost domestic demand by expanding the social safety net and increasing employment. The government's contribution to fiscal consolidation is being prioritized to ensure that non-performing loans are not used to fund day-to-day spending. The government is also strengthening our external position, particularly with regards to global liquidity, and we remain committed to our overall macroeconomic stabilisation and sound growth strategy. "In 2018, the government will continue to implement its series of important structural economic reforms, including the recently launched National Productivity Strategy, to streamline the regulation environment and implement a strategic approach to infrastructure development. The government will also focus on consolidating public finances, addressing the fiscal imbalances of the past and the future, as well as on strengthening the tax system and strengthening anti-corruption measures. "Given the substantial resources required for the implementation of these measures, we remain committed to implementing measures to ensure that the government is able to fund the investments necessary for the country's continued growth in the medium- to long-term. However, this will require that the liquidity available to the government is adequate. In this regard, we are expecting a slowdown in the economy in 2018. As a result, in order to ensure a continued adequate supply of funds, we have increased the cap on expenditure and increased the number of non-performing loans (NPLs) that can be used for the purposes of paying for goods and services to 90 per cent. "In line with our obligations
